anb – Arab National Bank (VML)

Senior UX/UI Designer

As a Senior UX/UI Designer at Arab National Bank, I lead the design and development of digital interfaces for banking applications and websites, driving user-focused improvements across key projects. I oversee the full UX/UI process from concept to execution, ensuring a seamless experience for users. Additionally, I have been instrumental in building and scaling the design department and managing the team's tasks to foster continued growth and innovation. I ensure a high level of quality at every stage of the product, paying close attention to detail to deliver a highly competitive app.

RELIQUM | Digital Jewelry

Senior Designer & Founder

Reliquium is a startup that reinvents the jewelry sector by adding the value of technology. It reinvents the locket, that necklace that our grandparents wore with a photo inside.

I made an investment from my own pocket to carry out the idea. I designed the app the jewelry & the marketing strategy.
